No one knows more about everything than I do. I am the best at knowing everything. I have a tremendous all-knowledge.

Narcissistic Personality Disorder*301.81 (F60.81)

A pervasive pattern of grandiosity (in fantasy or behavior), need for admiration, and lack of empathy, beginning by early adulthood and present in a variety of contexts, as indicated by five (or more) of the following:

1. Has a grandiose sense of self-importance (e.g., exaggerates achievements and talents, expects to be recognized as superior without commensurate achievements).
2. Is preoccupied with fantasies of unlimited success, power, brilliance, beauty, or ideal love.
3. Believes that he or she is "special" and unique and can only be understood by, or should associate with, other special or high-status people (or institutions).
4. Requires excessive admiration.
5. Has a sense of entitlement (i.e., unreasonable expectations of especially favorable treatment or automatic compliance with his or her expectations).
6. Is interpersonally exploitative (i.e., takes advantage of others to achieve his or her own ends).
7. Lacks empathy: is unwilling to recognize or identify with the feelings and needs of others.
8. Is often envious of others or believes that others are envious of him or her.
9. Shows arrogant, haughty behaviors or attitudes.

Breitbart once called Steve Bannon the "Leni Riefenstahl of the Tea Party." "Helene Bertha Amalie "Leni" Riefenstahl (German: ['bri:fənʃta:l]; 22 August 1902 – 8 September 2003) was a German film director, producer, screenwriter, editor, photographer, actress, dancer and propagandist for the Nazis."

WOW. The Mayor of #Berlin just issued this statement to #Trump about the #MuslimBan! <https://t.co/FUmgFr4ID>

We Berliners know better than most the pain caused when a whole continent is split by barbed wire and walls. Our division destroyed the prospects of millions. But ultimately we, the people, overcame it. One of the finest moments of the 20th century was when at the Brandenburg Gate - the most important symbol of the divide - ordinary citizens seized control of the wall and demolished it brick by brick. The Brandenburg Gate stands for that spirit of freedom.

Now, in the early years of the 21st century, we cannot let all our historical experience get trashed by the very people to whom we owe much of our freedom: the Americans. I call on the President of the USA not to go down that road to isolation and ostracism. Wherever such divides exist, like in Korea and Cyprus, they cause slavery and pain. I call on the American President: remember your William Howard Taft, the former governor general of the Philippines, became the heaviest president ever to hold office. He's credited with starting the tradition of having Filipino stewards in the U.S. Navy serve at the White House Mess.

That tradition lasted up at least until the Clinton White House, and some of the Filipino stewards were questioned in relation to the Monica Lewinsky affair.

Trump may come in second after Taft in terms of weight. The current WH chef is a Filipina, Cristeta Comerford, although no word yet if she will keep her job.

Some people only understand the logic of the wall.

'Our 2015 study found more Mexican immigrants had left the U.S. than migrated here between 2009 and 2014.'

More Mexicans Leaving Than Coming to the U.S.

Between 2009 and 2014, about 140,000 more Mexican immigrants have returned to Mexico from the U.S. than have migrated here, citing family reunification as the main reason for leaving.

Nestor Enriquez the figures might be right. The problem however doesn't include the greater number of hard working Mexicans, usually taking the lower pay grades of the US labor who crossed the border illegally and likely did not return. As in any racial group, there will be some criminal groups. It is impossible to count.

THE U.S. EXPORTED $250 MILLION IN GOODS TO MEXICO IN 2015. THEY CAN EASILY RESPOND TO ANY U.S. TARIFFS BY PLACING THEIR OWN TAX ON AMERICAN IMPORTS. THAT'S WHAT'S CALLED A "TRADE WAR," SENOR TRUMP.

Also, the import tax on Mexican goods gets passed to the American consumer on products like veggies and fruits that are out of season at our latitudes. So, it's the U.S. consumer that ends up paying for the wall, and U.S. exporters get hit as well (and Mexican exporters and consumers).

If Trump is trying to stop Mexican migration, he may be on the wrong track.
1. With Nafta, Mexico has been able to improve its economy resulting in fewer migrants, both documented and otherwise, to the U.S.
2. Ending Nafta would hurt the Mexican economy and create more impetus for migration. The wall is meaningless and won't help much more than the already existing fence. We would return to the old days of a market flooded with cheap undocumented migrants.

US apprehensions of undocumented immigrants by nationality

Donald Trump is building his wall with Mexico as undocumented border crossing reaches a 40-year low

Undocumented immigration from Mexico to the US is at a four-decade low point.

Joe Marlowe The whole idea of a sanctuary city is a misnomer. No city can protect you if federal immigration officers want to deport someone. What cities do can is refuse to assist federal agents in enforcing immigration laws. And why should they assist? Immigration is 100% a federal responsibility.

There's been a tendency to pooh-pooh Trump as a reality show clown who won't really follow through on his campaign rhetoric and threats. They say that the people around him will keep him under "control."

Well, so far, that's been 100% NOT the case. He's done everything within his power to follow through. And we have to remember that launching the nation's nukes is completely within the authority of the president and secretary of defense.

The need for vigilance is yuge!

Are we moving closer to nuclear war under President Trump?

Dr. Philip Lederer is a member of the Physicians for Social Responsibility, an affiliate of the International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War, which was...

We must distinguish this from election interference/manipulation as in the Russian hacking/leaks.

There have been just four documented cases of voter fraud in the 2016 election

Affecting about 0.000002 percent of the ballots cast.

Donald Trump freezes pay of hundreds of thousands of veterans, and cuts off a major source of employment for vets.

VoteVets Slams Donald Trump's Executive Order Punishing Veterans

WASHINGTON, DC – Donald Trump signed an order yesterday that freezes pay for hundreds of thousands of veterans, potentially shuts tens of thousands more out of a job, and seems to starve the Department of Veterans Affairs of workers it desperately needs.

"That didn't take long. In just his third day in office, Donald Trump screwed hundreds of thousands of veterans out of better pay, and thousands more out of potential jobs," said Peter Kauffmann, Senior Adviser to VoteVets. "Veterans who have families to feed, who may be saving up for a home, all of them have been let down by Donald Trump. This shouldn't be shocking. Donald Trump lobbied New York to kick disabled veterans, working as vendors, out from in front of Trump Tower. He has always been hostile to working veterans."

"What we still do not know is whether the Department of Veterans Affairs is also subject to his hiring and pay freeze. It would be the ultimate insult to our men and women who serve to deny them the additional doctors, nurses, therapists, and administrators that are sorely needed at the VA," Kauffmann added. "If his Executive Order leads to preventable deaths, that will be on Donald Trump's hands, and we will hold him personally accountable."

The Executive Order, signed by Trump, freezes pay and hiring for all Federal agencies with few exemptions. The Federal workforce is 31% veteran, meaning roughly 23,000 veterans depend on Federal jobs and pay.

Further, for those unemployed veterans seeking work, Federal jobs are a prime destination, thanks to a 2009 executive order signed by President Barack Obama, establishing the Veterans Employment Initiative. That order instructed agencies to identify and hire qualified veterans for job openings. Trump's hiring freeze means no jobs are now open for veterans, at affected agencies.

It is unclear as to whether the Department of Veterans Affairs will be granted an exemption to the hiring and pay freeze. According to VA officials in California, they have not yet received any instructions as to whether they can or cannot hire the psychologists, nurses, and social workers for which they currently have job postings.

They are saying that Trump could attack California by cutting off federal funding and trying to preempt our state government. That would be like cutting off the flow of fuel/energy to your car's engine.

California is the innovation and growth engine of the nation. As goes California, so goes the country.

During the Trump winter, California will provide the blueprint for a sunny future for the world.

Why California Represents the Future of US Growth Potential

California's real economic performance over the last two years shows what is possible in modern America.
